Experience

Technical Partner Engineer | Yext | New York, NY | Oct 2026 - Present

- Redesigned the Apple photo gallery to serve dynamically resized photos, and led full version migrations across listings, reviews, social, and knowledge graph (~$300M in revenue)
- Built and run a team knowledge system that ingests each day's work into a central repository and answers questions through agents
- Rebuilt integration monitoring to 100% coverage and now run a triage layer that assesses severity on ~1,300 alerts a year, filing Jira tickets or closing as no-op
- Own product requirements and roadmap for 65+ integrations across Apple, Google, Yelp, Bing, and healthcare
- Drove the team-wide re-title to engineer after taking on production engineering work in Feb 2026

Technical Partner Manager | Yext | New York, NY | Oct 2024 - Sep 2026

- Identified partner conversion and attribution gaps and led development of two Google redirect integrations, driving $2.8M in new ARR
- Defined and launched Apple Maps white-label product strategy, creating a new distribution channel that generated $10M+ in upsells and renewals
- Translated partner APIs and customer requirements into technical specifications, partnering closely with engineering to ship scalable integration solutions
- Led healthcare vertical product strategy, redesigning data schema and managing integrations (WebMD, Zocdoc, Healthgrades) supporting 20% of customer base
- Promoted from Associate Technical Partner Manager in Oct 2025

Associate | Curinos | New York, NY | Mar 2024 - Oct 2024

- Modeled $1T+ in retail deposits to help large US consumer banks make pricing, acquisition, and retention decisions
- Built predictive models (decision trees, random forests) forecasting deposit behavior across rate, growth, and attrition scenarios
- Presented findings to bank executives, shaping customer acquisition and retention plans
